

Omg!! She is the sweetest thing ever! Of course she is mommy's new bedmate. Her and my Dane slept with me the first night. He is like her big brother, he has to know where she is at all times and is very gentle with her. She loves him. It's like she's been here all along. Whatever you have done to socialize her absolutely works!! You're awesome!

Her first day at work she had everybody ohh and aahing!! Love it!! She prances around like she owns the place. She has been eating great.. I've had absolutely no issues with that. She seems to know her name. She is definitely attached to me!! Which I love! No whining. I can't enough about her I am sooo glad I got her.... she just makes me laugh alllllll day!!

Keep up the great work you are doing down there you are awesome. She was worth every dime. I'll send pics and some video this week.

Thanks again, she has me wrapped around her little paw!!

Also no accidents!! Pee pads and outside!!! Yippee. Knock on wood
